Audit & Risk Committee Independent Member (Voluntary Position)

Kooweerup Regional Health Service (KRHS) is currently seeking the skills of an experienced Audit Committee member that is willing to be part of a team that is dedicated to ensuring best practice is delivered at a small rural health facility.

The Audit and Risk Committee is a requirement of the Standing Directions of the Minister for Finance under the Financial management Act 1994.

As a member of the Audit and Risk Committee you will oversee and advise KRHS on matters of accountability and internal control affecting the operations of the organisation. As a member you will also provide oversight of financial and broader organisational risk items.

The Committee performs its duty under the Audit Charter that clearly sets out the role and responsibilities, composition, structure and membership requirements.

The Audit and Risk Committee is supported by the Chief Executive Officer and reports to the Board of Management and as such is seen as providing a key advisory role to the executive function.

Suitable candidates will have the following experience or qualifications:

- financial literacy; ideally and accounting background.
- reasonable knowledge of the Public Sector agency's own risks and controls;
- integrity, objectivity, accountability, honesty and openness;
- dedication of time and effort;
- an enquiring mind;
- independence of judgement;
- relevant industry knowledge; and
- business experience in the public or private sector.

The Committee meets 4 times per year.

Induction to the role is provided by the organisation.
